Midtown Mosaic's Alberta Artist Gallery Show & Sale aims to raise funds for Community Programs and Restoration

(CALGARY) Organizers for the 6th Annual Midtown Mosaic Fall Festival (Friday, September 28, and Saturday, September 29, 2012) at St. Stephen's Anglican Church are busy preparing for perhaps the busiest year for art, music, kids activities, books, and food. All proceeds will go to community programs and initiatives.

Midtown Mosaic's ART GALLERY SHOW & SALE begins Friday, September 28 at 6:30 p.m. and will feature 20 local and regional artists specializing in several mediums: paint (oil and acrylic) on canvas, cards, and limited prints.

Ginny Edwards, a well-known Calgary artist, is the organizer of the gallery showing. She says last year, over 300 people attended the event. This year, there is an even bigger selection of original works available, which are enhanced by the venue itself.

"The artists love the venue's atmosphere and so does the public because it's not your typical gallery setting. The historic setting and beauty of the building is what makes the setting unusual and unique."

Admission to the Midtown Mosaic's ART GALLERY SHOW & SALE is FREE and includes exclusive cheese selections by Say Cheese Fromagerie and delicious pairings from Wine Ink. Guests will enjoy jazz music and have the opportunity to chat personally with the artists.

The Art Show & Sale continue into Saturday, September 29, 9:30 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Visitors will also enjoy the BIG BOOK SALE on Saturday, with hundreds of books on all subjects, for all ages, for a great price. The day will also feature kids activities such as Face Painting, Storytime, and an Arts Table. A SWEETS SALE, and Midtown Mosaic's famous DELI LUNCH will also be available. Admission is also FREE to this event, children and families welcome.
